to reward them for their search was a man's old hat. It is not known whether the owner of this hat or the hat itself had anything to do with the queer noises.

William Stickney, the owner of the building, who lives next door, says he heard the strange noises and was unable to sleep. Some of the neighbors also say they heard queer sounds proceeding from the building.

WAR UPON DOGS.

Asbury Park Police to Shoot All Unmuzzied Canines.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 18.—In compilance with the new ordinance passed las; right by the Common Council the Mayor to-day issued a proclamation oedering the killing of all unmuzzied dogs on sight. The police will at once begin to carry out the ordinance. The sudden waking up of the authorities was brought about by the sad fate of Lizzie Byran, agel nineteen, who died vesterday of hydrophobia, the result of being biften by a dog.

Matthew Applexate, who was to have married Miss Hyran soon, was scratched on the face by his sweetheart while he was at her bedside during her violent strug les. Young Applexate, who is much affected over Miss Byran's ideath, savs he does not feel or fear any ill effects for the scratch he received. The fureral of Miss Byran will take place to-morrow.

Mr. Plaut considers responsible for all the trouble.

Last night matters grew so unpleasant by reason of Miss Harcourt's free and easy Australian way of making herself conspicuous that Mr. Plaut called in Policeman James Mair, of the Thirtieth street station, and ordered the dancer's arrest.

Chra was locked up, and when first arraigned this morning it looked as if she would get out of her little difficulty avery easily.

Proprietor Plaut told Justice Homan hat he was willing to withdraw the compiunit and call the bill square provided
